

Hi-Way

RAYMOND F. CORDES

Reliable "Ray" . . . is going to be a transport pilot as a starter toward his million . . . hates all homework . . . hunting is his hobby and Alaska his admiration.

RITA N. COSGROVE

Tactful "Ta" . . . tall and attractive . . . is afraid only of fear . . . admires Mr. Hewes . . . her hobby is dancing . . . she will probably be the first woman president of the United States.

JOSEPHINE M. COSTA

Jovial "Jo" . . . thinks Dick Powell is tops . . . likes to make model airplanes . . . will some day be an efficient secretary . . . is scared of snakes.

MARIE COSTA

Serene "Sis" . . . is going to be a teacher . . . she wants to see the sights of the world . . . likes music . . . her hobby is reading . . . she is one of these fearless persons.

MARGARET MARIAN CRANDALL

Piquant "Peggy" . . . snappy dresser . . . makes all her own clothes . . . fears deficiency slips . . . wants to be a designer and from all indications is going to get that wish.

ROBERT CRONENBERG

Bluffing "Bob" . . . bashful—journalistically inclined . . . models boats and historical vessels . . . lives in dread of "wild" girls.

EDYTHE CRUTHERS

Effervescent "Ede" . . . "With my dogs and horses let me be content." . . . idolizes a certain polo player . . . her great ambition is to be a designer.

JOAN CHRISTINE CUNNINGHAM

"Cutepork" . . . vivid . . . feminine and charming . . . to be a stenographer . . . enjoys reading and writing . . . admires Red Hair . . . fears snakes.

CLIFFORD B. CURTIS, JR.

Conservative "Cliff" . . . firmly believes that "Honesty is the best policy" . . . admits that he is scared to ribbons of himself . . . wants to ride a bronco in a rodeo . . . amuses himself with pitching horse shoes and playing ping pong.

CHARLES A. CUSICK

Casual "Charlie" . . . his ambition is aviation . . . enjoys all sports . . . his secret admiration is Car barn Hammerschlug . . . pet fear is his report card . . . will enter the business field.

MARY ELSIE DAVIES

"Jill" one of these peppy persons who always greets you with a smile and the little extra something . . . tennis and tap dancing are her hobbies . . . her only ambition is to get to college . . . has a fear of being late for dinner . . .

LORRAINE E. DAVIDSON

Racy "Rainy" . . . likes everything . . . wants to become a private secretary . . . fears the fifth period of every day . . . won't tell us what her secret admiration is.

