

(b. March 10, 1921, Mount Holly, NJ-d. November 24, 1944, Germany)

Attended Valley Forge Military Academy

Entered Rutgers September 1941, attended one year

Entered Service February 14, 1942, U.S. Army, commissioned 2nd Lt., July 29, 1942, 1st Lt., July 15, 1943

Ross was the son of a state senator from Burlington County who briefly served as Senate President and as acting Governor. Ross was killed in action during the invasion of Germany.

Salvatore F. Procopio '39

(b. November 26, 1917, Omaha, NE-d. December 23, 1944, Germany)

Attended Clifton High School, Clifton, NJ

Entered Rutgers September 1935, BS, Pharmacy, May 1939

Entered Service U.S. Army, August 3, 1942, commissioned 2nd Lt., October 1, 1943

Salvatore died in a German POW camp.

R

Rutgers alumni

Samuel Leonard Rader '42

(b. December 28, 1918, Brooklyn, NY-d. September 12, 1944, France)

Attended Roselle High School, Roselle, NJ

Entered Rutgers September 1938, attended one year

Entered Service U.S. Army, Technical Sergeant 4th/g

Miles Victor Reed '44

(b. November 15, 1920, Trenton, NJ-d. March 15, 1945, Leyte, Philippines)

Attended Trenton High School, Trenton, NJ

Entered Rutgers September 1940, attended two years

Entered Service May 1, 1942, U.S. Army Air Corps, commissioned 2nd Lt., March 12, 1944

While at Rutgers, Miles was a member of Delta Phi. He received training at airfields in Nashville, TN, Bainbridge, GA and Albany, GA. Miles was stationed with the 70th Tactical Squadron, 433rd Tactical Group. He was awarded the Bronze Star for his actions during the New Guinea Campaign. Miles died when his plane was shot down by enemy fire over Leyte Island, Philippines.

Donald Curtis Reeves '46

(b. September 2, 1925, New Lisbon, NJ-d. December 24, 1944, Gros-Rederdching, France)

Attended Pemberton High School, New Lisbon, NJ

Entered Rutgers September 1942, attended one year

Entered Service September 1943, U.S. Army, Private First Class

Donald enrolled in the Army Specialized Training Program at Cornell University, NY, where he trained to be a mechanical engineer. Overseas he served with Company K, 345th Infantry and then with the 87th Infantry near Gros-Rederdching, France. On December 16, 1944 he was reported missing in action after the Germans launched their winter offensive. Donald was awarded the Purple Heart posthumously.

George Anthony Renoux '41

(b. February 10, 1920, Milltown, NJ-d. January 2, 1945, Belgium)