

Jersey Journal (Jersey City, NJ), Wed., Oct. 11, 1961, p. 5

List all names in this issue.

estimated $6,000 worth of damage today at N.Y. and N.J. Freightways Inc. 601-682nd St. Jersey City.

Police said the blaze was started by gas vapors hitting the hot exhaust system of a truck being refueled in the one-story brick garage.

The building, owned by Abraham Blumenthal, 326 Cross St., Fort Lee, suffered $2,500 fire damage and $1,500 water damage. Damage to the truck was estimated at $2,000.

No one was injured, police said.

John Spring Jr.

A solemn high requiem mass for John Spring Jr., 45, of 196 Clinton Ave., Jersey City, will be offered at 10 a.m. Saturday in St. Aedan's Roman Catholic Church.

Mr. Spring, a native of Jersey City, died yesterday at the Medical Center after a brief illness. He was a receiving clerk with Acme Fast Freight Co., New York. He was a member of St. Aedan's Holy Name Society and the Matthew J. Doyle Association. See death notice.

York City, was a clerk. Born in Jersey City, he was an Army World War II veteran. See death notice.

John F. Smith

Services will be held Friday for John F. Smith, 76, of 2057 Ellery Ave., Fort Lee, at the Heus Funeral Home.

Mr. Smith, who died yesterday in Bergen Pines Hospital, was born in North Bergen. He lived in Fort Lee over 30 years. He was a retired employe of the Ford Motor Co.

Nelson Caldrony

Services were scheduled today for Nelson Caldrony, 62, of 6033 Monitor Pl., West New York, at the Edward P. Horgan Funeral Home.

Mr. Caldrony, who died Monday at his home of a heart condition, was a native of Hackensack. He was a retired clerk.

Mrs. E. Schaffner

Services will be held Friday for Mrs. Agnes Schaffner, of 670 Palisade Ave., Teaneck, at the Vorhees Funeral Home in Ridgewood Park.

and a member of the Canadian Society here and the Columbia University Club. He was an elder of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church here.

Joseph Gleason

A solemn high requiem mass for Joseph Gleason, 49, of 202 Second St., Jersey City, will be offered Friday in St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church.

Mr. Gleason, a native of Jersey City and a longshoreman, died yesterday in the Medical Center. He served in the Army Air Corps during World War II. See death notice.

Airlines

Congress Must On 'Non-sked'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The next session of Congress must decide whether the "now-and-then" airlines will become a permanent part of U. S. commercial aviation.

The House and Senate both passed bills last session which would give the Civil Aeronautics