

LITTLE FERRY BOY DIES FROM WOUNDS

Mrs. Nellie Caldrony, of North Hackensack, received a telegram from Washington on Saturday evening informing her that her son, Walter Caldrony, had been severely wounded in action on October 8.

Joseph Dileo, of Little Ferry, was yesterday notified that Private Rocco Dileo had died on Nov. 7 from wounds received in action.

Mrs. Amelia May, of Rochelle Park, was notified yesterday that Private Charles A. May, had been slightly wounded on Sept. 13. The family received letters to this effect three or four weeks ago.

Walter Caldrony