Record 7/2/29 p2

BLAKE DIES
N YORK HOME

ent Member of sack Elks

, Hackensack today
claimed Robert J.
me, 142 West 112th
, was a severe blow
nds he had in Hack-
en he and his family
here several years

nty-four years old.
will be held on
his residence, with a mass at 10 a. m. at
otre Dame, Morning-114th street.

Joseph, and one grandson, Joseph Jr.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

NORMAN S. DAHL.

Funeral services for Norman Stanley Dahl, Red Road, Teaneck, who died in the Holy Name hospital yesterday morning of injuries received when struck by an automobile, will be held from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Dahl, 661 Teaneck Road, Wednesday afternoon.

Special services will be held by American Legion Post 128, Charles Peters commander, at the home and all members of the post, or of the incorporated Robert Roche post, of Lower Teaneck, from which, when it was still in existence Dahl had transferred to Post 128, are urged to come and pay their last respects to their comrade.

Mr. Dahl is survived by his mother and father, his wife and a baby daughter and several brothers.