

WHESSY MONDAY

Analyst Closter

nt P. O'Shaughrrington Street
at Holly Name
k.
eck, he was a s Borough 13
merly lived in nessy was a nt analyst for Insurance Com-

World War II
ber of St. March, a member
Holy Name So-
Queen of Peace

his wife, Lo-Thomas W. and daughters, Marary R., all at rs, Mrs. Rose
h and Mrs. Ag-worth, and two
M., of Haw-
am J., of Ha-

be received at
ral Home, Old
oad, today and
to 5 P. M. and ass will be of-

10 A. M. at St.
Church. Intern St. Andrews
Vale.

ackson,
ood, 70

William Haupt, 71, Ex-Postal Employee

Teaneck Man Was Former President Of State Beekeepers Group

Teaneck — William R. Haupt, 71, of 170 Washington Place, retired postal employee and past president of the New Jersey Beekeepers Association, died yesterday while visiting at the Fair Lawn home of his daughter, Mrs. Barbara Devens.

Romilda Zoppo Of Paterson, 73

Paterson — Mrs. Romilda Veccia Zoppo, 73, of 738 East 23rd Street, died at home Thursday night, after a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Zoppo, daughter of the late Professor Francesco and Maria Trama Veccia of Italy, was born in Italy and lived here for the past 30 years.

Mrs. Zoppo leaves her husband Ralph, owner of the Zoppo Furniture stores in Paterson; two sons Dr. Ciro Zoppo, an international lawyer of Pacific Palisades, Calif., and a son Jerome Zoppo of Waldwick, chairman of the Waldwick Zoning Board and an executive of the Waldwick Planning Board; a daughter Mrs. Mario Maria Rodrig of Paterson, two brothers Alfredo and Luigi Veccia, both colonels in the Italian Army; two sisters, Mrs. Ezilda Mandat and Dr. Erma Veccia, both in Italy, and six grandchildren.

She was a member of Saint Joseph's Home Auxillary and the San Leucio and Vaccheria Society.

Mr. Haupt, a native of New York City, had lived here for the past 63 years. He had retired in 1957 after 25 years of service in the Teaneck Postoffice and he had given up beekeeping in recent years. Mr. Haupt was also a member of the Retired Civil Service Postal Employees Association.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Devens and Mrs. Lois Andersen of Putnam, Conn.; a son, William of Warwick, N. Y.; 20 grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Pauline Stapleton of Leonia and Mrs. Ethel Clarke of Rumson; and a brother, Ernest of Teaneck.

Funeral services will be Monday at 2 P. M. in the Peinecke Funeral Home, 1321 Teaneck Road.

Friends may call at the funeral home today and tomorrow from 2 to 5 P. M. and from 7 to 10 P. M.

STANLEY SUDOL RITES MONDAY

Garfield Resident, 45 Was Service Veteran

Garfield — Stanley A. Sudol, 45, of 371 River Drive, died yesterday in Veterans' Hospital in East Orange, after a brief illness.

Born in Passaic, he had resided in Wallington until 5 years ago when he came to this City.

Mr. Sudol was a veteran of World War II and the Korean conflict.

He was employed by the Local Cemetery Association and had been a parishioner of Holy Rosary R. C. Church, Passaic.

Surviving are his wife Agnes Slowik Sudol; a son Stanley; three daughters Gloria, Julie and Francine, all at home, and a brother Joseph of Wallington.

The funeral will be Monday at 9 A. M. from the John Labash Funeral Home, 40 Monroe Street, Passaic, with requiem mass at 9:30 o'clock in his parish church.

Interment will be in Saint Michael's Cemetery, Lodi.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home today and tomorrow from 2 to 5 and 7 to 10 P. M.

Helèn Domozyk, Sister Succumb On Same Day

Wallington Woman Dies On Learning Of Kin's