GEORGE MOSS, 52, SUCCUMBS

Ex-Bergen Man Was Credit Manager

Bergenfield — George Frederick Moss, 52, a native of this Borough who moved to Whitman, Mass., after World War II died Monday in Boston of a heart attack.

Mr. Moss, who was a graduate of Tenafly High School and local elementary schools, was credit manager for a wholesale children's wear firm. He was one of the first Borough residents to be drafted in World War II.

Mr. Moss served 5 years in the Army, rising to the rank of lieutenant with the Third Armored Division. He continued in the Army Reserve and held the rank of major.

He is survived by his wife Phyllis; a son, Paul; a daughter, Susan; a brother, Winthrop of Bergenfield; and a sister, Miss Marjory Moss of New York City.

The funeral service will take place Friday from the Sheppard Funeral Home, Whitman. Burial will be private. The family has asked that donations be made to the Heart Fund.

Anna Emr. 65:

Johnsons In Detroit To Funeral Of Senator Mc

Detroit — President and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson and a party of 20 Senators join those paying final tribute today to United States Senator Patrick V. McNamara.

The President and the First Lady attend the last rites at noon in Detroit's Holy Name Roman Catholic Church.

McNamara, 71, died of a stroke Saturday at Bethesda Naval Hospital, Bethesda, Md.

He was under treatment for a blood clot in a lung.

Detroit Police Commissioner Ray Girardin said 350 uniformed policemen and 50 detectives were assigned to cover the President's visit.

Two of the three leading candidates for McNamara's Senate seat also were expected to attend the solemn requiem mass. These were Representative Robert Griffin (R., Mich.)

Christian Schwamb, Former Legion Head

Teaneck — Memorial services for Christian Schwamb Jr., past commander of Post 128, American Legion, will be conducted by Post members at 8 P. M. today at the Peinecke Funeral Home, 1321 Teaneck Road.

Mr. Schwamb died Monday at his home, 1214 Arlington Avenue, after a brief illness. He was 69 and had lived here for the past 40 years. He was a retired accountant for the New York Central Railroad.

Surviving are a brother Herman of Bergenfield, and a sister

Mrs. Christine Graf of Hillsdale.

The Rev. George De Lawler of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will conduct funeral services at 2 P. M. tomorrow at the funeral home. Interment will follow in Hackensack Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home today from 2 to 5 and 7 to 10 P. M.
