

The High Way

The most outstanding game thus far was with Westwood in which Weingartner pitched a no-hit game.

The outstanding figure of the season was Denny Averill, the smallest and youngest man on the team.

Those fellows having a home run to their credit are Raschka, Weingartner and Morrison. At the time of this writing, Wild has the highest batting average.

The veterans on the regular team include Weingartner, Takala, Morrison, Raschka, Hjar, Weissinger and Hughes; the new-comers were Wild, Averill, Cathie, Degerick, Schaff and Bushman.

Takala, who captained the team, played third base; Wild at first; Raschka at second and Averill at short stop. The outfield consists of Hjar, Cathie, Bushman, Hughes, Degerick and Morrison, when not pitching. The squad was under the supervision of Coach Verne Dolph and managed by George Thurlby, assisted by Charles Heinen.
