

W. chcs, that over- that re- owd. were the Dis- er of ially I. E. n of sent, the is is has ed to r of the vised s an heral nary and the the	BECKER—AALBUE. Miss Sigrid L. Aalbue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Aalbue of 186 Seeley street, was married to Louis Becker of Manhattan Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Bambach of the Church of the Holy Apostles. The bride's sister, Miss Marie Aalbue, was her only attendant. John Jordan was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Becker will take up their residence in the Flatbush section. Those present at the ceremony and reception were: Mr. and Mrs. John O. Aalbue, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Becker, Miss Olga Aalbue, Miss Clara Becker, Miss Florence Licarl, Miss N. Christensen, Miss Lillian Tibball, Miss Margaret Wilson, Mrs. Arthur F. DeVries, Mrs. Lettie Kelley, William Aalbue, Raymond Coleman, the Rev. George F. Bambach, George Becker, John Becker, Frank Becker, Miss Amelia Becker and Miss Estelle Licarl. FOWLER—ALBEE. An attractive wedding last Wednes-	and fed know how "Oh, Lo little, and great dea kickers; steaks, ne coffee; bu humbly a and care army sold PARK Will Open Arrange for the a Congregat avenue at is schedu Friday ar and 28. der the o ganization church, a be a splen An effo $1,000 to on the ne
--	--	--

Wedding notice Sigrid Aalbue/Louis Becker Oct. 13, 1916

Clipped By:

raalbue

Wed, Sep 2, 2015