

CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of Teaneck High School, County of Bergen, State of New Jersey, being of sound (?) mind, memory, and understanding, do make, publish, and declare the following as our last will and testament; that is to say:

To our obscure, reticent Successors we leave our deepest sympathy and consolation, which we know they will need, due to their inferior intelligence and utter lack of the brilliance which the Seniors so conveniently possess. We, also, bequeath to the Said Successors the deed to and the rightful possession of the third floor.

Raymond Reeves leaves his ability to speak French fluently to Richard Parry.

Rita Williams leaves her school-girl complexion to Virginia Reeves.

William Richards leaves his loud "guffaw" to George Choose—may it liven him up.

George Rosenberg leaves his areonautical fever to Miss Malleon.

Harold Wahl gives his ability to sleep in class to Walter Colpitts.

Thomas Snow leaves his ability to blush to Mr. Bream. (Does he need it?)

Ada Thompson leaves her contagious giggle to Mr. Kroner.

Marion Sedivec leaves her quiet voice and apologetic manner to Stanley Eysmann.

Paul Zitelli leaves his business ability to next year's pledge sellers.

Johnnie Walker leaves his collection of worn wise cracks to future columnists of the Te-Hi-News.

Erwin Reppert leaves his love of chemistry to anyone who can stand the odors.

Murray Rothenberg leaves his football prowess to Denny Averill.

Hilda Richardson leaves her quiet dignity to Helen Mortenson.

Carol Scholz leaves her curves to future Geometry students.

Teddy Volz hands over to anyone who can carry them— the drums.

Helen Stuart leaves her knowledge of everyone's secrets to Larry McGrath's successor.
