

the hi-way

NORTHAM HYLAND leaves his physique to Bill Bridenberg for future use on the football team.

WALTER COLPITTS leaves his charming personality to Danny Ruess. (He'll love that.)

ALBERT HARGREAVES leaves his ability as a driver to Wilbur Welsh, so he can manage the Austin.

RED THOMPSON leaves his sense of humor to Miss Mayes.

JOHNNY CORFF leaves his immaculate ways to Freddy Bridge.

HOWARD STOUGHTON leaves his helpfulness to a lot of guys who need it.

DOUGLAS STUART leaves his prowess on the football team to Richard Parry.

JUNE BIRD RENTON leaves her ability to play parlor rugby to Audrey Dreyfuss.

TO MR. KOTHE—a book of puns and how to express them.

CHARLES BERGHORN, Carlton Schifferdecker, and Alden Varnum leave their progress (?) at making a girl to Tony Zaycek.

TO MISS FREGOSI—a pair of invisible stilts.

We leave to the faculty, many other brilliant senior classes and our sincere thanks for all the efforts they have made to impart to us some of their learning.

We, the Senior Class as a whole, generously bequeath our dignified and faultless mien, our unfailing energy in the realm of athletics, our irreproachable school spirit, and above all, our extreme modesty, to the Junior Class, thereby giving them a start toward the achievement of the high standard of the Senior Class.
