

of life on May be air- Lawn of the danger disre- ty, he reckage e pilot, pit. gh the ase his ishers. flames ng air- as the firing courage olism in service ected nd the ates." of Mrs. Ashville, n, and ity. He d High iversity left for r, 1943, ca and	Others have given more, but no gifts received by the Fund has meant quite so much. Record 2/26/45 P.2	have be by the change
	rites for Davis	Henry Pion
	Services Are Held For Pilot Killed In Plane Crash	First H
	Funeral services for Lieutenant William Fred Davis were held last night from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Davis, 1288 Hudson Road, West Englewood.	Funer man Sr home, 8 will be Home, noon at erick M ment W Cemeter
	Lieutenant Davis was killed in a plane crash near Pollocksville, N. C. Monday and his body, accompanied by a Marine escort arrived home on Friday.	A res years, M first Ch the Vol ganized Surviv Henry a the Ferr of Ridg Egan of
	Born in New York City 21 years ago, Lieutenant Davis graduated from Teaneck High School and entered service in January 1943. After completing Naval Air Training at various bases in the country, he was assigned to the Marine Air Corps and was slated for overseas service at the time of his death.
	He was married to the former Miss Carol Lantz of West Englewood last December 1 and the couple made their home at Berne, N. C., near his base.	FRA
	He was a nephew of Captain Harry Davis of Teaneck Fire Department and besides his wife is survived by his parents and two sisters, Marilyn and Betty Ann.	Retired
	The services were conducted by the Rev. Albert Stauderman of St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Interment will be held today at the convenience of the family in Hackensack Cemetery.	Frank shoe ma Avenue, Saturda ness. F came to He had many y field al
	John L. Berg	was a P. and He is former Vincent
	Wood - Ridge Resident's Funeral Services Set For Tomorrow
	Funeral services for John L. Berg	