1,200 Parents Attend;
Memorial Plans Told

The greatest number to attend Teaneck High School "Back to School Night" turned out Monday when approximately 1,200 parents filed into the school from 7:45 until 10:45 p. m. and followed the classroom schedule of their sons and daughters.

The event which is sponsored annually by the Parent Teachers' Association for the purpose of acquainting parents with teachers and the school took the place of the organization's regular October meeting.

High School Principal Charles L. Steel, in an opening address stressed the school's recognition of the fact that the education of youth is a
