

BONNEVILLE OFF AS NAVY RECRUIT

West Englewood Man To Get Ground Training

(Special to the Bergen Evening Record)
Newport, R. I., Aug. 18—James Warren Bonneville of West Englewood, N. J., has arrived here at this Naval Training Station's School of the Recruit for instruction in fundamentals.

He enlisted with preference for rating in the mechanical ground crew of the Naval Air Force.

Bonneville is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Goldsway J. Bonneville of 126 Ayers Court, West Englewood. He will be 22 years old November 23.

He attended Washington School 2 in Teaneck and was graduated from Teaneck High School in 1936 when he began work in the Kearny plant of the Western Electric Corporation.

His father has been department executive there for 28 years. His parents have lived in areas of Teaneck for 15 years.

James Warren Bonneville of West Englewood who is at the Newport, R. I., Naval Training Station School of the Recruit. He seeks rating as a mechanic in the ground crew of the Naval Air Force.

8-18-42

TEANECK HURLER 2ND LIEUTENANT

Chester W. Sheets Rises Rapidly In Army

Chester W. Sheets of Teaneck, N. J., good enough to pitch his way into a contract with the St. Louis Cardinals baseball team, scored another win here at this Field Artillery Officer Candidate School in gaining a commission as second lieutenant less than six months after being drafted.

Sheets hurried for the Teaneck High School varsity and later for outstanding semi-pro teams in Bergen County. It was in a game for the varsity against Westwood High School that he pitched the first of the two no-hit no-run games showing on his record. He made the lineup of the Bergen Evening Record All-County baseball team five years ago. He will be 21 years old October 8.

His second shutout was for the Bogota baseball club in its game against Hurd's All-Star baseball club of Hackensack.

Three years after his graduation he was brought to notice of the Cardinal management and made the squad. He was assigned for seasoning with Cardinal farm team at Daytona Beach, Fla., and Williamson, W. Va.

Sheets was drafted by the Teaneck Local Board last February 2. He was detached from Fort Dix for training at Fort Bragg, N. C., and there earned his corporal chevrons. Now he has been given orders to report at Camp Harding, Fla.

He was graduated from Teaneck High School in 1937 and continued his studies at Bergen College and Pace Institute. He worked for the International Harvester Corporation at the time he was drafted.

At Teaneck High he was vice-president of his class and also of the H-Y Club. He is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Sheets of 229 Grayson Place, Teaneck. His sister Miss Virginia Sheets is a professional model.

Sheets pitched for two years for the Bogota Club and for another two for Hackensack's Baseball Club of Hackensack.

8-26-42

WIN OFFICER RATINGS IN UNITED NATIONS ARMED FORCES

Three boys making good as soldiers are (left to right) Marquette de Bary of Leonia, just commissioned as a second lieutenant in the Army Signal Corps; Private First Class James Edward McGuire of Teaneck, graduated recently as a radio technician with the Army Air Forces; and Sergeant Pilot John L. Becker of West Englewood, who won his wings with the Royal Canadian Air Force and expects to be sent overseas soon for combat duty.

8-18-42

Arthur Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. Hill, 871 Lincoln Place, Teaneck, has been graduated from the Monmouth Officer Candidate School and has been assigned as a second lieutenant in the Signal Corps, at Paine Field, Everett, Wash. After graduation from Bogota High School in 1935, Hill was employed by the Mutual Life Insurance Co. His brother, Robert W., is a yeoman, first class, in the Coast Guard at Washington, Del.

8-26-42

TEANECK YOUTH IS A LIEUTENANT

Orcutt Wins Commission In Air Forces

(Special to the Bergen Evening Record)
Miami Beach, Fla., Aug. 25—William A. Orcutt of 84 Grayson Place, Teaneck, has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the Army Air Forces after finishing his course at the Technical Training Command here. Lieutenant Orcutt was employed with the Wall Street Journal before entering the service.

John R. Leonard of 131 Lincoln Avenue, River Edge, has been commissioned a captain from the same school. Both will be assigned to the ground forces.

8-26-42

Trains As Officer (Special to the Bergen Evening Record)

Port Hanning, Ga., Aug. 25—Staff Sergeant John McLaughlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. James McLaughlin of 388 Esther Avenue, Teaneck, today started a 12-week course at the Infantry Officer Candidate School. Successful completion of the course will earn McLaughlin a second lieutenant's commission. He has been in the Army since January, 1940, when he was among the first selectees to leave from Teaneck.

McLaughlin spent a 10-day furlough at home just before he entered school here. He was given a farewell party Saturday night.

A graduate of St. Cecilia High School in Englewood, McLaughlin was on the football team in 1936 when he played with the Saints as a right tackle. He is 25 years old.

8-26-42