

Wave Works

In King's Office

(Special to the Bergen Evening Record)

Washington, Dec. 3—Yeoman Second Class Dorothea Jameson of West Englewood, N. J., hold the coveted position of secretary-receptionist in Admiral Ernest J. King's office in Washington. King is commander-in-chief of the U. S. fleet.

The 23-year old Wave, whose favorite hobbies has always been yachting and fishing, enlisted in the Waves after the organization was formed in July, 1943. She received her training in the Agricultural College in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Her photograph appears in the "The Story of You in Blue", the Wave recruiting book.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Ross Jameson of 1473 Teaneck Road, West Englewood. Miss Jameson is a graduate of the Union Hill High School in Union City and Pace Institute in New York.

12-3-43

TWO FLIERS DIE; SOLDIER KILLED

Marine Flier Reported Missing In Action

Two local fliers died in crashes of bombers here and abroad, a third Army man was reported killed in action in Italy, and a fourth local man, a fighter-pilot, was reported missing in action in casualty news of the day.

The Dead

OLSEN, Staff Sergeant George E.; 23, son of Captain and Mrs. Hans Olsen, Bogert Street, Teaneck; Air Force.

12-3-43

TAIL GUNNER

Olsen was tail gunner on the Flying Fortress that returned from a bomb run and cracked up at Regimont of Norfolk, England, November 13. He enlisted in the Air Force in October last year and worked for Wright Aeronautical Corporation, Paterson. He was a Teaneck High School graduate. He is survived by two brothers also in service. Eugene Olsen is in the Air Force at a Colorado field, Harry Olsen is at Fort duPont, Delaware.

12-5-43

R. F. Towle At Charleston

Charleston, S. C., Dec. 6—Seaman Second Class Raymond Franklin Towle of Teaneck, N. J., has arrived here at the Navy Yard to begin four months of intensive study in the yard's Radio School.

The bluejacket was assigned following graduation from the Naval Training Station at Newport, R. I., and will train to become a radio-man with the fleet and in shore stations.

Towle is the son of Mrs. Anna Towle of 261 DeGraw Avenue, Teaneck. He attended the Bogota High School and was employed as an apprentice machinist in Hackensack before enlisting in the Navy at Newark last September 1. His brother, Private First Class Robert F. Towle, is with the Army.

12-6-43

Teaneck Resident Enrolled

Cookeville, Tenn., Dec. 10—Air Student Charles F. Lowenthal, 19, of 282 Sherman Avenue, Teaneck, N. J. is in training here for the Army Air Force. In five months he may qualify as an aviation cadet.

(Special to the Bergen Evening Record)

Sampson, N. Y., Dec. 10—Seaman Second Class Diederick Luhman of 288 Fyke Lane, Teaneck, N. J., has completed his recruit training at this Naval Training Station.

12-10-43

TEANECK WAVE SERVES AS SECRETARY IN WASHINGTON

Yeoman Third Class Dorothea Jameson of Teaneck, who is serving as a secretary as well as a receptionist in the Washington offices of the Commander-in-Chief of the Navy, is shown here taking a letter to the dictation of Commander Victor D. Long.

—Official U. S. Navy Photo.

12-3-43

ENSIGN DANIEL R. PAUL

Ensign Paul At Miami

(Special to the Bergen Evening Record)

Miami, Fla., Dec. 6 — Ensign Daniel R. Paul of 428 Woods Road, Teaneck, N. J., has arrived here at the Navy Air Force station for new duties. He starred in football at Teaneck High School last year.

Paul enlisted in July last year a month after his graduation from school. He did a 10-week training trick at Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., and then was ordered to the Chapel Hill, N. C., Pre-flight School. Last January he was commissioned at the Pensacola, Fla., Air Station.

12-10-43

THOMAS NAMED TO A MAJORITY ON OFFICIAL LIST

Teaneck Resident Has Infantry Assignment With New Rating

OTHER PROMOTIONS

(Special to the Bergen Evening Record)

Washington, Dec. 7—Perry M. Thomas of 88 Ayers Court, Teaneck, N. J., has been promoted from captain to major in Army Infantry, the War Department announced here today.

12-7-43

Larsen Commissioned Pursuit Plane Pilot

(Special to the Bergen Evening Record)

Dothan, Ala., Dec. 9—Leslie N. Larsen, 19, of West Englewood, N. J., was commissioned here at Napper Field last Sunday as an Army Air Force pursuit plane pilot and second lieutenant.

Soon he will follow into active duty along a sky trail blazed by an uncle, Technical Sergeant Walter Paulsen of 217 Queen Anne Road, Bogota, held since last May as a prisoner of war in Germany. Paulsen was crewman on a Flying Fortress.

Larsen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Nicholas Larsen. He reports December 17 as an instructor at Randolph, Tex., Field.

12-9-43