HELEN STEVENSON

"Toots" the tops . . . her ambition is to become an executive . . . baseball is her hobby . . . a certain senior is her ideal . . . the first period is her pet fear.

ELEANORE STRAUB

"Straubie" . . . level headed, honest and sincere . . . wants to make a lot of money . . . she enjoys singing . . . her secret admiration is a certain coach . . . fears dentists . . . her vocation will be stenography.

WILLIAM G. STRICH

"Bill" . . . almost too good-looking to be true . . . wants to go to Africa . . . collecting deficiency slips is his favorite pastime . . . pet fear is Hollywood G-Men . . . doesn't know what he wants to do right now.

RODERICK ALLAN SUTTLE

Robust "Rod" . . . ambition is to be a sailor . . . his hobby is automobiles . . . admires Jack Dempsey . . . he fears teachers . . . will probably end up as a mechanic.

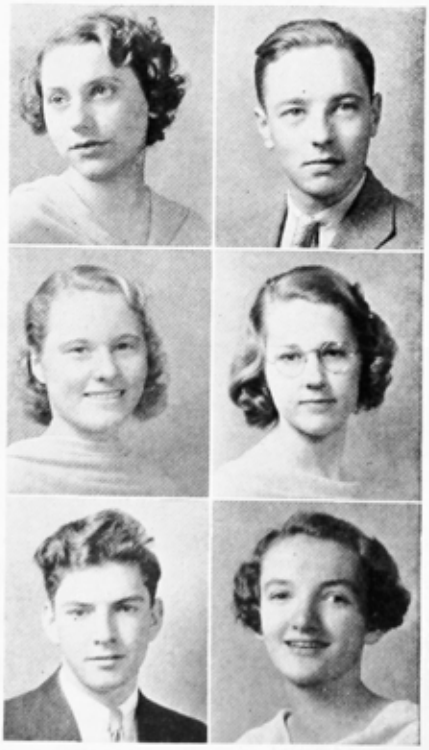

CARL F. SWENSON

Sunny "Swamsup" full of vim and vigor . . . ambition is to be an army officer . . . his hobby is aviation . . . Lieutenant Vidal is his admiration . . . wants to become an engineer.

HERBERT EDMUND TAYLOR

Edifying "Eddie" . . . wants to be an aviator . . . his one ambition is to go to Ohio State University . . . fears flunking . . . forgets that he brings his car to school sometimes.

ELSIE ANNA TEMPLIN

Lovable "Lilacs" . . . her ambition is to become a pianist . . . likes to write poetry . . . she admires Janet Gaynor . . . her pet fear is leaves rustling in the dark.

ARTHUR L. TYLER

Air-minded "Art" . . . wants to be an aeronautical engineer . . . manly and pleasing in appearance . . . hopes someday to be as carefree as Mr. Andrews.

MARY USTAL

Understandable "Usee" . . . her ambition is writing . . . likes to collect odd coins . . . she admires a certain "George" . . . darkness is her pet fear . . . will probably become a stenographer.

ADELE THAIS VAN SANTFORD

Diligent "Dell" . . . an ocean voyage is her ambition . . . likes to cook and dance . . . she admires Joan Crawford . . . fears deficiency slips . . . would like to become a file-clerk.

RICHARD PHILBROOK VARNUM

Discriminating "Dick" . . . his ambition is to become a construction engineer . . . hobby—just sailing, sailing . . . he secretly admires the ideal brunette . . . and he fears blondes . . . hopes to attend a co-ed college.

LOUISE B. VOLCKER

Lucid "Lou" . . . smart and good natured . . . her ambition is a Southern Colonial Mansion . . . she likes to play tennis . . . and her ideal is Helen Wills . . . she doesn't want to grow any taller . . . would like to become a juvenile court lawyer.