

JUNIOR COLLEGE BOYS TO TRAIN FOR 3 SERVICES

10 Boys Leave To Take
Marine, Navy, And Air Training

ADMIRAL'S SON GOES

Ten Bergen County boys left Bergen College, Teaneck, this morning for colleges in the East to train with the Marines, Navy, and Air Forces with the new college training programs. Eight other students from the college, not residents of Bergen County, also left today.

One of the Marine recruits is John S. Low, son of Rear Admiral Francis P. Low, who has been living for the past 6 months with his mother at 125 Prospect Avenue, Hackensack. The Low's home is in Washington. He will report at Princeton. The other County residents leaving today are Richard Ahlert of River Edge; David Chadwick of Rutherford; Ralph Donig of Hackensack; Albert Deysher of Leonia; Daren J. Flitteroff of Maywood; Frank O. Morris of Ridgefield Park; Jon Rosenthal of Cliffside Park; James Trubek of Teaneck; and Roy Weston of Oradell.

James Trubek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Trubek of 960 Lincoln Place, Teaneck, reported to Columbia University this morning to train with the Navy Air Force. He attended Teaneck High School before attending Bergen College.

7-1-43

Ernest P. Meyer Jr. Finishes Course

Private First Class Ernest P. Meyer Jr., son of E. Pennington Meyer of 764 Victoria Road, West Englewood has been graduated from the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command School at Chanute Field, Illinois.

7-2-43

S. D. Fitch Graduated

Fort Riley, Kan., July 7—Stephen D. Fitch of 49 Park Avenue, Teaneck, N. J., has been graduated from this Cavalry Officer Candidate School and commissioned a second lieutenant.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Arle Fitch, he is well-known in Bergen County musical circles as a baritone soloist. His wife, the former Miss Edith Reis, lives with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Reis, on Summit Avenue, Bogota, N. J.

7-7-43

Grano Finishes Phase

(Special to the Bergen Evening Record)

Montgomery, Ala., July 7—Aviation Cadet Ralph E. Grano of 1677 Rensselaer Road, Teaneck, N. J., has completed the second phase of his flight training at this Army Air Force Basic Flying School at Gunter Field.

Before transferring here, Grano took primary flight training at Ocala, Fla. He was appointed an aviation cadet in May, 1942.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Grano, he will take his advanced flight training at a Southeast Training Center school. After the final phase of his training, Grano will be rated a pilot.

7-7-43

RECEIVES TRAINING

ENSIGN STEVENS

TEANECK ENSIGN TAKING COURSE

Stevens Goes To Syracuse For Training

(Special to the Bergen Evening Record)

Syracuse, N. Y., July 3—Ensign William D. Stevens of Teaneck, N. J., has reported here for special training with the Navy after completion of his indoctrination and engineering course at Cornell University.

Ensign Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Stevens of 462 Standish Road, Teaneck, was graduated from Teaneck High School in 1936 and in 1940 he received a degree of bachelor of science in mechanical engineering from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, N. Y.

He was married to the former Miss Mary Elizabeth King of Troy, N. Y., in 1940 and he has 1 year-old daughter.

7-3-43

Fahnestock Graduated

(Special to the Bergen Evening Record)

Avon Park, Fla., July 7—Aviation Cadet Walter D. Fahnestock Jr. of 330 Warwick Avenue, West Englewood, N. J., has been graduated from the Sixty-first Flying Training Detachment here.

Fahnestock took his preflight training at Maxwell Field, Montgomery, Ala., and then was ordered to this primary flying school. He has been transferred to an advanced flying field in the Southeast Training Center. Fahnestock is the son of Mrs. Ernestine Fahnestock.

7-7-43

Ten At Ohio State

(Special to the Bergen Evening Record)

Columbus, O., July 7—Ten Bergen County, N. J., men have arrived here at Ohio State University for work in the Army's specialized training program as follows:

TEANECK—Jack F. Christie of 33- Sherman Avenue.
WEST ENGLEWOOD—Gordon C. Gray of 419 Churchill Road.

In this group of recruit specialists Ballenbach is a corporal; Haupt, a technician fifth grade; Nanus, Parker, and Gray, privates first class; the others privates.

7-7-43

NAVAL OFFICER TO LEAD V. F. W.

Commander Dougherty To March At Teaneck

Navy Commander William Dougherty of Teaneck will lead the members of Post 1429, V. F. W., of Teaneck in tomorrow's Township parade which will begin at 2 P. M. from Queen Anne Road at DeGraw Avenue, it was announced today by Post Commander Francis J. Kelly. Commander Dougherty is a regular member of the Post.

Commander Dougherty, who served with the British Navy during World War I, came to the United States later and joined the United States Navy. He was captain of the U. S. S. Roosevelt before the war and was retired when the Japs attacked Pearl Harbor. He was called back to active duty immediately and was in the battle at Casablanca. He has been in the Solomon battles and will return on a leave today to his home at 995 Teaneck Road, Teaneck, where he and his wife make their home.

Thomas J. McCaffrey, director of the Post's Drum and Bugle Corps, will lead the Corps in the parade tomorrow and he will give a party at Post Headquarters Tuesday night for 3 of the Corps members who are leaving for the armed forces. The boys are Robert Dodds, Robert Mansfield, and Joseph Grater. McCaffrey will present them with the insignia of the branch of service they are entering.

Commander Kelly said that the Post has been notified that the 40,000 cigarettes purchased by the Post are now on their way to the South Pacific area for our fighting forces.

Former Post Commander Fred Klemm is chairman of a committee which is making arrangements to have every member now serving with the armed forces receive at least one letter a month from members of the Post.

Joseph Barbalinardo, veteran of World War I has been accepted to membership in the Post.

7-3-43

Two Complete Course

(Special to the Bergen Evening Record)

Chico, Calif., July 7—Two Bergen County, N. J., Army aviation cadets have completed basic flight training at this Air Force field. They are John Warren Ziegler, 24, of 1009 Garrison Avenue, Teaneck, and James Louis Lepis, 20, of 736 Summit Avenue, River Edge.

During their nine weeks at Chico, the pair took night, formation, cross country and instrument flying, as well as ground school subjects. They now are in advanced school on the last leg of their training.

Lepis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Lepis. Ziegler's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Keller Ziegler.

7-7-43