Prisoner Husband Finds Wife in Army

There’s just so long that you can sit at home and wait for your husband and when Captain Reginald Miner of Teaneck was reported as a German prisoner his wife, last March 28th, joined the Army Nurse Corps and look forward hopefully.

Investigation proved to wife Martha, a housewife, that her husband had been released and went to the Lucky Strike camp in France.

Air transportation was arranged and she arrived just 24 hours before her husband was told to be on the move again.

The reunion marked a double surprise for the Teaneck pilot. Going to the fact that he had received little word before his liberation in May, he was never certain whether his wife had joined the military or not and when he discovered that he had received her mail on September 26, the day after her being reported missing.

The Captain and the Lieutenant will return to the States, according to Mrs. Doris Miner, 814 Linden Avenue, Teaneck, at an early time he hopes to appear at Teaneck High School this fall as part of his repatriation program.

Teaneck Marine Is Wounded at Iwo

Private Passantino, 23, a member of the Fourth Marine Division, was wounded in the battle for Iwo Jima on February 20. The parents have been notified. Recently they received a letter from their son with this news.

According to his letter, he was shot and as well as ever, his biggest concern was for those back home. Then he added, "Oh, before I forget, if you haven't re-ceived a telegram as yet you will in the near future telling you I was wounded, or words to that effect. Don't be too much attention to it because it wasn't anything serious. A bullet went through my back and had a nice shot and never got out. So you see it wasn't much."

Private Passantino, a graduate of Teaneck High School, class of 41, enlisted in the Marine Corps in August 1942. At Teaneck High, he was active in many school activities, but was outstanding in athletics. He did a great amount of transferring the school paper and also drew many of the pictures for the yearbook. He was also a member of the V. F. W. Drum and Bugle Corps in Teaneck.
